

Southern Adventure
Ushuaia-Argentina

When you arrive to Ushuaia, you will find you are at the most southern point of our country and our continent, about 3,000 km from the city of Buenos Aires and at 54 ° 48' South latitude, 68 ° 19' West longitude. It has a population of 70 thousand inhabitants.

Ushuaia is located in the province (county) of Tierra del Fuego and is the gateway to Antarctica. It is the place where the cordillera de los Andes finally rests on the sea, and this allows one to appreciate a unique landscape.

Lapataia Bay, South extreme point where the National route N° 3 ends, 3.079 km from Buenos Aires and 17.848 km of Alaska located in Tierra del Fuego National Park. If you have enough time, you can't miss the Maritime Museum and the Presidio de Ushuaia.

The climate and what to pack in the suitcase

From June to September, the days are cold. Temperatures range between - 5 ° C and 4° C. Precipitation in the form of snow allows the practice of winter sports such as skiing, snowboarding and ice skating. In these months, the days are shorter since the sun rises at 10:00 AM and sunset is at 17:00 (5:00 PM).

During the summer, the days are very extensive.

The sun rises at 4:00 AM in the morning and stars at 22:00. Take warm clothes, both for winter and summer, waterproof jackets, comfortable shoes and sunglasses.

HD Tierra del Fuego National Park and Lapataia Bay – Lunch included

Departure from the hotel west bound to the Tierra del Fuego National Park, the only one in the country with sea coast, located twelve kilometers from the city of Ushuaia. There you can enjoy a ride with multiple panoramic views of the Beagle Channel, wrapped in the enchanting environment that provides the last foothills of the Cordillera de Los Andes before diving into the ocean and Andean-Patagonian forest, made up of diverse tree species -such as, cherry trees, ñires, notros, among others and different flowers, such as orchids, violets and senecios. A tour between bogs and beaver dams leads to the Lapataia River and Laguna Verde. Continue along the final stretch of National Route 3, which ultimately culminates at Lapataia Bay. Here, the early inhabitants of the area left their imprint in the "concheros", incredible archaeological sites that provide interesting information about their ancient customs. From here return to Ushuaia, making a stopover on the way to admire Rock Lake, which is characterized by the color of its waters, which vary according to the weather. After the excursion, return to the hotel.
