

Taste of Patagonia
San Carlos de Bariloche - Argentina

San Carlos de Bariloche is located 1,600 km from the city of Buenos Aires and is considered one of the most beautiful cities of the Patagonia Argentina due the beauty of their natural resources. Its latitude it is located 41 ° 13' South and its length to 71 ° 31' West. It has a population of 113 thousand inhabitants. It is located on the shore of the Nahuel Huapi Lake of glacial origin that surrounds and frames the city with its color The Andes mountains, lakes, streams, forests and melting rivers, make Bariloche a unique place to enjoy its landscapes and its people. There are still traces of the first Central European immigrants who came to the area, choosing it as a place where to settle. Surely, the scenario reminded them much home. Today, the typical constructions of stone and wood in conjunction with more modern constructions give Bariloche a special touch. The Cerro Campanario (Bell Tower Hill) is one of the main attractions of this city. It is 1,050 metres in height and is accessible by a chairlift. Once at the top, according to the National Geographic, one of the most beautiful panoramas in the world from where you can appreciate the Victoria Island, Lake Nahuel Huapi and Moreno, the Llao Llao, the San Pedro peninsula and the Mountains of the Andes. Can be performed hiking, horseback riding, and sports of winter during the months from June to August. Its gastronomy is characterized by smoked meats, fish, cheeses, fruits of the forest and traditional chocolate in branch, which is the gastronomic symbol of the place. In the city there are several banks that operate from 8:00 to 13:00 and have ATMs. They accept credit cards, except in some places where there is no telephone line signal. There are two houses of exchange, so it is possible to go with foreign currency, which in turn, is also accepted in shops and restaurants. Bariloche is connected by air to Buenos Aires, San Martin de los Andes, Calafate, Cordoba and Rosario. It allows the mountain range crossing by land, through Lakes that connect to Chile.
