

Wine Lovers
Mendoza - Argentina

Mendoza City is the capital of the eponymous province. It is 1,085 km west of the city of Buenos Aires, and at an average altitude of 750 meters above the level of the sea, next to the Andes Mountains, that borders with Chile. It has a population of 122 thousand inhabitants. Mendoza is characterized by having a large commercial, industrial, cultural and building development, and also for being the center of tourism towards the Andes and Mount Aconcagua.

This adventure makes it a unique destination for tourism. In addition, it is possible to visit their vineyards, and the excellent quality of its wines is internationally renowned.

It is also known as 'Garden City', ideal for walking along its streets impeccably clean and surrounded by trees, nature and a various commercial, cultural and gastronomic combination. Among its attractions are the Church San Francisco, General San Martín Park and the Hill of Glory.

Banks work Monday-Friday from 8:00 to 13:00 hours. Bureau de Exchange are open from Monday to Friday between 8:00 and 20:00 and Saturdays from 8:00 to 13:00 hours. Shops and businesses operate between 9:00 and 13:00 and 16:00 to 20:00 in the afternoon. Saturday, usual hours are from 9:00 to 13:00 hours. Shopping centers are open from Monday to Sunday from 10:00 to 22:00.

Restaurants, are usually open 12:00 to 15:30 and from 20:30 hours until they close. In the high mountain area some restaurants do not accept credit cards. Dollars are generally accepted, but ideally everything is paid with pesos to prevent unfavorable changes in some shops.

THE CLIMATE AND WHAT TO PACK IN THE SUITCASE

In Mendoza, the winter is cold and dry, with average temperatures that they have is 8° C. There may be frost by night, and some precipitation in the form of snow, so it is advisable to carry a good warm heavy coat for excursions.

The summer is very hot, but it is so dry that there is no moisture. The average temperatures exceed 25° C. For the mountain area is recommended to bring a light coat because sometimes there is a constant wind.
