Private transfer to the airport for your flight to Cusco in LATAM AIRLINES. Upon arrival in the Imperial City, your expert guide will meet you, assist with your luggage, and take you on a scenic drive to your hotel in the breathtaking Sacred Valley of the Incas. Nestled at a lower altitude than Cusco, the valley provides a gentler acclimatization experience, ensuring a smooth transition to the highlands.

PRIVATE FULL-DAY TOUR: TEXTILE CENTER & PISAC MARKET WITH LUNCH

Begin your journey with a visit to a traditional textile center, where you'll witness the ancient Andean art of weaving. Here, you'll encounter the four fascinating camelid species of the Andes—llamas, guanacos, alpacas, and vicuñas. Learn about the intricate process of wool harvesting, natural dyeing techniques, and traditional weaving methods passed down through generations. This cultural center is dedicated to preserving the region's rich textile heritage, allowing you to engage with local artisans and gain insight into their timeless craft.

Next, enjoy a gourmet lunch at Hacienda Sarapamba, which offers an immersive experience in Andean culture and agriculture. Known for its rich history in corn production, the estate showcases traditional farming techniques, local cuisine, and breathtaking landscapes.

After lunch, continue to Pisac, a charming Andean town known for its vibrant artisan market. Originally a Sunday-only event, the market has grown into a daily attraction due to its immense popularity. Here, artisans from across the region gather to showcase their handwoven textiles, ceramics, silver jewelry, and other traditional crafts. Wander through the colorful stalls, soak in the lively atmosphere, and discover unique souvenirs while experiencing the rich cultural heritage of the Sacred Valley.

If time and energy allow, we can arrange exclusive visits to some of the Sacred Valley's most prestigious hotels, offering a firsthand look at their world-class amenities.

DAY 02

DAY 2, SEP 21 PRIVATE FULL-DAY TOUR: OLLANTAYTAMBO, MARAS SALTPANS & MORAY TERRACES

Immerse yourself in the breathtaking history and landscapes of the Sacred Valley on this exclusive full-day private tour.

Start your journey at the imposing fortress of Ollantaytambo, an Inca stronghold that once protected the valley from jungle invasions and later became the resistance capital of Manco Inca during the Spanish conquest in 1537. Explore its majestic terraces, ceremonial water temples, and the awe-inspiring Temple of the Sun, featuring massive, precisely carved stone blocks. Wander through the town of Ollantaytambo, where centuries-old Inca streets, original stonework, and running water channels still define daily life.

Next, visit the Maras Salt Pans, a striking landscape of over 5,000 shimmering salt pools carved into the mountainside. Used since pre-Inca times, these pools naturally produce salt as the sun evaporates mineral-rich spring water, creating a mesmerizing patchwork of colors and textures. Witness firsthand the Incas' ingenuity in resource management and take home some of the world's finest pink salt.

Continue to the mystical Moray Terraces, a marvel of Inca agricultural engineering. These vast circular terraces, resembling giant amphitheaters, were likely an advanced agricultural laboratory where the Incas experimented with crop adaptation across microclimates. Marvel at this testament to Inca scientific and agricultural expertise, which allowed them to cultivate a wide variety of plants at different altitudes.

Indulge in a delicious farm-to-table lunch at a charming countryside restaurant UNU, where you'll savor authentic Andean flavors made from native ingredients in a warm and inviting setting. After an unforgettable day of exploration, you'll be transferred back to your hotel in the Sacred Valley.
