

Following the Andean Bear TRAIL

Nature, culture, and flavors of the Andean Chocó

A journey to reconnect with what truly matters

ITiNERARY

Nature, communities, and experiences
that leave a mark

06:30		Departure Quito Botanical Garden
07:30		Pululahua Crater Viewpoint Ventanillas, Calacali
08:30		Breakfast Yunguilla
11:00		Hiking in Maquipucuna Reserve Cloud forests and biodiversity
13:00		Lunch Maquipucuna
15:00		Coffee Break Franjares Café
16:30		Rumicucho Archaeological Site San Antonio de Pichincha
17:30		Middle of the World Mitad del Mundo
18:30		Return to Quito

Get ready to discover the Andean Chocó!

Recommendations for your trip

Trekking
shoes

Insect
repellent

Layered
clothing

Reusable
water bottle

Sunglasses

Camera or smartphone with moisture protection

DISCOVER THE ANDEAN CHOCÓ

Nature, culture, and unique experiences
that leave a mark

Pululahua Viewpoint

Admire one of the world's few inhabited volcanic craters.

Yunguilla Breakfast

Enjoy local flavors and community-based tourism.

Maquipucuna Reserve

Walk through cloud forests rich in biodiversity and wildlife.

Rumicucho Archaeological Site

Explore ancestral history surrounded by mountain landscapes.

Middle of the World

Stand on the equatorial line and learn about Ecuador's unique geography.

Places that connect you with
what truly matters

Recorre
Pichincha

PREFECTURA DE PICHINCHA
INVENCIBLE

Thank you

FOR BEING PART OF THIS JOURNEY

We return with hearts full of nature, culture, flavors, and unforgettable memories.

Let's protect the forests that
leave their mark on us.

Récorre
Pichincha

PREFECTURA DE
PICHINCHA
INVENCIBLE